—Mrs. Cox, of Tilton, who has been under treatment at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington, for several weeks, arrived Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson. She was met there by her husband, Rev. Cox, who on Monday was stricken with Spanish influenza, but is doing nicely at this writing. This is the only new case we have to report.

—Mrs. C. B. Smith left Monday for Owensboro, where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, Dr. Boston, on Tuesday, returning Wednesday. Mrs. Boston was formerly Miss Mary Smedley, the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smedley. Miss Smedley was united in marriage to Dr. Boston about nineteen years ago. They have resided at Taylor, Texas, the greater part of their married life. Some time ago Dr. Boston came to Owensboro on a visit to relatives. While there he was seized with Spanish influenza. His wife, however, reached his bedside before his death. They were the parents of three children, who remained at home.

—There was great rejoicing in Millersburg early Monday morning when it was learned that Germany had signed the armistice. All the bells of the town rang for quite a while, automobile horns were heard everywhere, country people came to town as fast as machines could bring them here, the M. M. I. cadets turned out in full parade, and there was indeed two hours of happiness, mingled with two hours of complete confusion. The celebration was again reopened at about seven p. m. Everything in the way of fireworks that could be gotten was used. The display was beautiful and noisy, as everything that could make a noise was utilized. Men, women and children cheered until they were hoarse, automobiles paraded the streets decorated in flags and bunting with everything conceivable about them that could make a noise. There were no slackers. Everyone tried to see who could make the most noise and contribute all they could to the happy and joyful confusion. There was no disorder on the part of anyone, and no one carried the thing too far. It is an event that will always live in the minds of those who took part in it, or beheld it.

—Mr. Gano Duncan and family will move to Lawrenceburg, where Mr. Duncan will serve as manager for the Anderson Home Telephone Company to succeed Mr. J. C. Head, who will take charge of the Nicholas Home Company. Mr. Duncan has served as local manager for the Bourbon Home Company for several years. He and his wife came into our community as strangers and have made a number of friends who regret their departure. Mr. Duncan has rendered splendid service to the patrons and operators. He is a thorough business man and tries to serve all alike, making no discriminations. All who know these good people wish them much happiness and unbounded success in their new field of labor. Mr. Duncan will be succeeded as local manager here by Mr. Chas. McDaniel, who, with his wife, will move here to-day from Little Rock. Mr. McDaniel until recently has resided at Ewing. Last August he took charge of the work at Little Rock and by his strict attention to business, coupled with his ability to try to serve all with whom he came in contact, was recently promoted to the Millersburg office, and will enter on his duties here to-day. His wife will take the place on the board formerly held by Mrs. Duncan.

DEATHS.

MAHONEY.

—Another name has been added to the list of Bourbon county boys who have died in the service of their country, and who in making this supreme sacrifice have made for themselves a place secure in the memories of their fellowmen for all time. Private James Mahoney, a native of Ruddle Mills, where his parents still reside, died in a base hospital in France on October 3, from wounds sustained in one of the big battles that have helped to decide the war for liberty and right.

The information of Private Mahoney's death came to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Mahoney, in the shape of a telegram from the War Department. Private Mahoney was born in this county on January 20, 1887, and at the time of his death was in his thirty-first year. He was a member of the Bourbon county draft, and was inducted into the service of the United States on April 29, 1918, when he accompanied the Bourbon county contingent to Camp Zachary Taylor. From there he went with a large number of other Kentuckians composing the 84th Division, to France, in June.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Mahoney, of Ruddle Mills, one brother, Mr. John Mahoney, and four sisters, Mrs. Claude Fowler, Mrs. Bedford Whitson and Miss Nellie Mahoney, all of Ruddle Mills, and Mrs. William Taylor, of Harrison county.

Private Mahoney was a man who was well liked by his comrades and by his civilian friends, who were a legion themselves. He had a jovial disposition and one of his comrades remarked on one occasion, as told in letters written to his parents: "I'll bet Mahoney would be jolly and good natured even if he had to hang or shoot the Kaiser, in itself not a disagreeable duty."

RELIGIOUS.

—The meeting of the Kentucky Baptist General Association, which was to have been held this week in Campbellsville, Ky., has been postponed because of conditions brought about by the influenza epidemic.

—Ministers and elders of the Presbyterian churches in Lexington and the vicinity have extended an invitation to the Synod of Kentucky to hold its annual meeting this fall in the First Presbyterian church of that city. This meeting was to have been held in Nicholasville beginning October 10, but was postponed on account of the influenza epidemic.

—The Convention of the Synod of the Province of Sewanee, which was to have been held in the Christ Church Cathedral, of Louisville, on November 9, 10 and 11, has been canceled at the request of the bishops of the church because of the war situation. This convention of the Episcopal Church is represented by the bishops of all the States south of the Ohio River and from the Mississippi River to the Atlantic coast.

BROTHER OF PARIS MAN COM-MITS SUICIDE.

Add Casey, aged forty-two, well-known in Paris, shot and killed himself at the home of his father, former Sheriff W. T. Casey, at Sunrise, in Harrison county, Monday. The weapon used was a shotgun. The charge entered the heart and death was instantaneous.

Sidney Casey's barn, at Sunrise, in Harrison county, was burned, together with its contents, Saturday night. An automobile, 1,500 sticks of tobacco, farm implements, harness, feed, etc., went up in smoke. Capt. Mullikin, of Lexington, was telephoned to bring his bloodhounds to the scene in an effort to trace the incendiary. He brought the dogs in a machine, passing through Paris that morning. The dogs took the scent readily, and persistently led to Add Casey, who was sitting on a fence at some distance from the house. It is thought that the suspicion thus aroused hastened the man in his determination to take his own life.

Casey was a brother of John H. Casey, of near Paris. He was Deputy Sheriff of Harrison county under his father. The burial took place in the Cemetery at Sunrise, in Harrison county, Wednesday morning, at ten o'clock, with services held at the grave.

HOOVER SAYS FOOD PRICES WILL NOT DROP AT ONCE

Immediate dropping of food prices as a result of the conclusion of an armistice cannot be expected, Food Administrator Hoover declared in a statement, which added that while the prices of some foodstuffs will decline, others will increase.

"With the war effectively over," said Mr. Hoover, "we enter a new economic era and its immediate effect on prices is difficult to anticipate. The prices of some food commodities may increase, but others will decline, because with liberal shipping accumulated stocks in the Southern hemisphere and the Far East will be available. The demands upon the United States will change in character, but not in volume."

"All activities of the Food Administration will be continued through the armistice period," said Mr. Hoover, adding that "there will be no relaxation of efforts to keep down profiteering to the last moment." "The maintenance of the embargo," he continued, "will prevent depletion of our stocks by hungry Europe below our necessities, and anyone who contemplates speculation in food against the needs of these people can well be warned of the prompt action of the Government."
